

MOTION BY SUPERVISOR DON KNABE

November 9, 2016

On August 6, 2016 at approximately 10:19 p.m., Victims Carina Mancera and her boyfriend Luis Anaya along with their 4 year old daughter, Jennabel Anaya were returning home to the 900 block of Locust after a shopping excursion. All three victims got out of their car that was parked near 9th Street and Locust in Long Beach. Carina and Jennabel started walking toward their apartment as Luis followed.

An unknown assailant appeared at the intersection of 9th Street and Locust and began firing at all three victims. Carina sustained several gunshot wounds to the upper torso and died at the scene. Jennabel was also struck by gunfire and was transported to Long Beach Memorial Hospital where she was later pronounced deceased. Luis escaped injury.

On September 19, 2016, Detectives released two videos of a person they believe is responsible for killing Carina Mancera and Jennabel Anaya. These videos were released through the local media outlets and depict the suspect at a local liquor store as well as being on the Metro. Due to the limited response, Detectives reached out to Crime Watch Daily with Chris Hansen. On October 5, 2016, this case was featured on Crime Watch Daily with Chris Hansen in hopes of reaching a broader audience. Even though the videos of the suspect are of good quality, Detectives are still seeking the help of the public in identifying the name of the suspect in these videos.

To date, no one has been arrested in this case. There have been several calls from the public that Detectives are sorting through however Detectives are still asking for the public to call if they know the identity of this suspect. Detectives feel it would be beneficial to continue to offer this reward, which may prompt reluctant witnesses to
